

I'm sorry, but I don't feel that the Federal government should have control over the no call list. In Indiana, it has been working and why mess with something that is working. If I were able to vote on this, it would be NO! It has been so much quieter during the evenings because of these phone calls.